SANGINI seeks project coordinator

Sangini seeks to appoint a freelance project coordinator in a part time opportunity.

This is an exceptional opportunity to contribute to the delivery of Shakti, our community arts programme for 2010. By working with high quality professional artists and focusing on the artistic process as a means of engagement, the project seeks to provide BME women in Sunderland with a new creative language that tells their stories.

The project coordinator will manage the day-to-day delivery of Shakti within the set budget, and ensure that all the aims of the project are met and targets are achieved to the satisfaction of the participants, partners and funders.

To be successful you will have proven experience of working in community arts/voluntary sector. You will have experience in project management, working within agreed budgets, and undertaking evaluation and measuring impact.

Sangini is an arts organisation that aims to increase the quality of the lives of women of all ages, with particular focus on women from minority ethnic communities in North East England, especially in the Tyne and Wear Region through artistic, educational, cultural and recreational activities that also promote cultural diversity.

Terms: 120 days over a 40 week period

Fees: This is a part-time opportunity with a limited budget so please state daily rate. It is expected fees will not exceed £8,500.

Deadline: Monday 1st February 2010 9.00am

You will hear the outcome of your application by Wednesday 3rd February. Please be aware that interviews will take place on Monday 8 February or Tuesday 9 February.

To apply, please send an expression of interest, to include a CV, marked for the attention of Shruti Jain at info@sangini.org.uk.
